
Working group for the SET

The Working Group for the Student Evaluation of Teaching (SET) is an advisory body that helps to develop the process of the student evaluation of teaching. The group is headed by the Vice-Rector for the Quality of Education and Accreditation, and its membership includes representatives of both the academic community and students.

Page Admin: Jan Polák